

One-liners For Behaviour Management

One-liners 041 to 060

NOTE:

Character development and behaviour management for parents, teachers and children are inseparably bound up in these One-liners.

- 041 Appeal to the child's better nature.
- 042 Have few rules but strictly enforce them.
- 043 Inconsistency creates frustration and insecurity.
- 044 If you make mistakes in bringing up your children you're just proving you are human.
- 045 There is a tension in children between selfishness and security.
- 046 Children need to be taught self-denial and to delay gratification.
- 047 Keep your sense of humour, it can sometimes defuse tense situations.
- 048 After consequences are given, treat the child as if nothing has happened.
- 049 Don't play favourites with your children.
- 050 Everyone who manages children will make mistakes.
- 051 Be aware of the dangers and benefits of the 'ripple effect.'
- 052 Honesty will serve your child better in life than a good education.
- 053 You cannot work miracles, only God can do that.
- 054 Parents should provide a united front in managing behaviour.
- 055 Each person is unique and special, don't make comparisons.
- 056 Children can learn to behave differently in different social environments.
- 057 Parents need to take care of themselves.
- 058 It's 'until death do us part' not 'until children do us part.' (John Rosemond)
- 059 Be authoritative but not authoritarian.
- 060 Equality between parents and children leads to a lack of respect for authority.

By
Richard Warden